FOCUS ON THE IT VALUE CHAIN

THE IT4IT™ REFERENCE ARCHITECTURE

The IT4IT™ Reference Architecture is the latest initiative from the Open Group, created to help organisations create better IT services by applying structured Architecture approaches to the definition of an IT Operating Model.

Enterprise Architects' classroom based training course covers version 2.0 of the IT4IT™ Reference Architecture and prepares you to take the IT4IT™ Part 1 exam to become a certified practitioner.

This course addresses these business challenges

+ Design an IT Operating Model to effectively support the modern business

+ Manage increasingly complex IT ecosystems through a single Reference Architecture

+ Define an IT Operating Model to drive performance

+ Create a simple and effective environment for the Business to broker the services they require from IT
